SEVENTY-THIRD DAY—(Cont'd.)

Senate Chamber,
Austin, Texas,
May 16, 1933.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock a. m., pursuant to recess, and was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Edgar E. Witt.

House Bill No. 886.

The Chair laid before the Senate, by unanimous consent, the following bill:

H. B. No. 886, A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend Article 1667, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas for 1925, as amended by H. B. No. 59, Chapter 38, of the Second Called Session of the Forty-Second Legislature, so that the provisions of said Article shall hereafter extend to all counties containing a population of one hundred and ten thousand (110,000), or more, as shown by the preceding Federal census; and declaring an emergency."

The rule requiring committee reports to lie over one day was suspended by unanimous consent.

The committee report recommending that the bill be not printed was adopted by unanimous consent.

The bill was read second time.

On motion of Senator Parr, the bill was laid on the table subject to call.

Senate Bill No. 540.

Senator Neal asked unanimous consent to take up out of its regular order S. B. No. 540.

Objection was heard.

Senate Bill No. 340.

The question recurred upon the motion to reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Senator Murphy to S. B. No. 340 was tabled.

Message From the House.

Hall of the House of Representatives,
Austin, Texas, May 16, 1933.
Hon. Edgar E. Witt, President of the Senate.

Sir: I am directed by the House to inform the Senate that the House has granted the request of the Senate for the appointment of a conference committee to consider the differences between the two Houses on S. B. No. 429. The following are conferees on the part of the House: Holland, Hankamer, McDougald, Dwyer, and James.

The House has passed the following bills:

H. B. No. 91, A bill to be entitled "An Act fixing the salary of the official court reporter in each judicial district composed of one county only, and in which county there is only one district court; and also in each judicial district composed of two or more counties; and also in each judicial district composed of one county, which county composes also a portion of another judicial district, etc., and declaring an emergency."

H. B. No. 325, A bill to be entitled "An Act, prescribing and fixing the number of hours that shall constitute a legal day's work on all work being performed by, or on behalf of, the State of Texas, or on behalf of any county, municipal, or other legal or political subdivision of said State; providing for cases of emergency; prescribing penalties for its violation, and expressly repealing an Act passed at the Regular Session of the Thirty-second Legislature, known as H. B. No. 98, and being the same Act that was attempted to be vetoed by the Governor, but which veto was held ineffective by the Supreme Court because the veto message was filed with the Secretary of State after the expiration of twenty days, as held by the Supreme Court in the case of R. B. Minor et al. vs. C. C. McDonauld, Secretary of State; and expressly repealing H. B. No. 298, known as Chapter 121 of the Acts of the Thirty-seventh Legislature, Regular Session, 1921."

Respectfully submitted,
LOUISE SNOW PHINNEY,
 Chief Clerk, House of Representatives.
